

Weekly Flu Update

City of Columbus & Franklin County, Ohio

December 24-30, 2017

Current Week Flu Intensity

Flu Intensity Per Week This Flu Season (October 2016 - May 2017)

Lab-Confirmed Positive Influenza Diagnoses
27.8% Positive (up 29% from last week)

Confirmed Influenza-Associated Hospitalizations
114 Hospitalizations (up 78% from last week)

Visits To Primary Care Providers* Reporting Influenza-Like Illness (*Providers in athenaHealth® Network)
9.0 per 1,000 visits (up 44% from last week)

Emergency Department (ED) Visits with Complaint Defined as Influenza-Like Illness
27.2% of All ED Visits (up 14% from last week)

Protect your health & prevent getting & spreading the flu by:

- Getting a flu shot every year.
- Washing your hands.
- Covering your cough.
- Staying home when sick.

All data is preliminary and may change as updated reports are received.
For more detailed reports of weekly flu activity, visit www.columbus.gov/FluReports

